

Brightlands Polymer Days 2021

November 7 - 9, 2021

NH Conference Centre Koningshof
Veldhoven, The Netherlands

Brightlands Polymer Days 2021 is a series of scientific conferences in the field of polymer science and technology. It is a collaboration and organised by the Belgian Polymer Group, KNCV Macromolecular Division, PTN, the former Dutch Polymer Days, and Brightlands Rolduc Polymer Conference. These partners have joined forces to start a new scientific conference where academia, from student to Nobel Prize winner, and industry can meet.

Sponsor Packages

There are several sponsorship opportunities for this international scientific conference. Each sponsorship package offers great ways to show your company brand internationally in advance of the conference and at the event itself. The Nobel package focuses on networking and gives you the exclusive opportunity to meet talented students, PhD candidates, SME's and corporate companies. Prints and gadgets are not included in the sponsoring price. Tailor-made arrangements are negotiable.
